3rd Annual We Heart You:
Recovery in Our Community event
A day dedicated to hope, connection, learning, and action.

Bringing together professionals, families, people in recovery, and community partners from across the region to strengthen our collective response to substance use and mental health challenges. Featuring a powerful lineup of regional and local presenters, storytellers, and breakout sessions.

Emcee: Tom Farley

Community Outreach Director at Recovery.com. Tom grew up in Madison and graduated from Georgetown University before launching a career that led him to run The Chris Farley Foundation, a nationally recognized nonprofit focused on substance abuse prevention. Co-authored The Chris Farley Show, a New York Times bestseller. Now in recovery himself, Tom is a dedicated advocate who uses storytelling and humor to break stigma, inspire hope, and connect people with the resources they need.

Keynote Speaker: Mark Sanders

Co-Founder of Serenity Academy Chicago, author, university educator, and internationally recognized behavioral health consultant. Recipient of prestigious awards for outstanding contributions to the social work profession. His message is rooted in resilience, compassion, and the power of community.
