Winnebago County Executive Hintz to Sign Responsible Bidder Legislation

[Winnebago County, WI] -- Winnebago County Executive Gordon Hintz will sign the County's Responsible Bidder Ordinance on Monday, March 23rd, 2026, reinforcing the County's commitment to fair competition, compliance, and quality work on public projects. The ordinance establishes clear standards for contractors working on County projects, helping ensure vendors meet labor, safety, and regulatory requirements while protecting taxpayer investments.

"This is about accountability and making sure county projects are completed by quality, compliant contractors," said Executive Hintz. "When we invest public dollars, we have a responsibility to ensure that work is done right, safely, and in a way that creates a level playing field."

Members of the media are invited to attend.
